

Captain: Branimir Mravak

Branimir was born in Split, on the Adriatic coast. He is passionate about the sea and water sports like sailing and windsurfing. Branimir has taken part in many sailing boat regattas and has also worked as a windsurfing instructor. After obtaining Yacht Master he started his professional career as a freelance skipper. He has worked for different charter agencies on different types of motor yachts, sailing boats and catamarans. He has done many boat transfers on the Adriatic and Med. Since 2007 he has been the captain of privately owned motor yachts. Branimir is reliable, experienced and dedicated to his guests. He speaks English fluently and in his free time he enjoys family life with his wife and son.

Hostess: Nera Santrić

Nera is from Split, born 1989. She finished first degree College of Business management. Years of working as a head manager of hotel Nera is full of hospitality experience and also she will provide you excellent customer service. She is in love with travelling and she enjoys spending time sailing, sea sports such as swimming and diving. Nera is friendly, courageous and very diligent person. With her peaceful nature and serenity she will make your stay at Mirno more unforgettable and pleasant. She is fluent in English and independent user of Spanish.

